Hey Everybody – Through a miscommunication, the initial invite said the call would start at 3:30. Per Greg's request, the call will start at 3:15. There will be another invitation going out. The call-in info is unchanged.

EPA folks – meet in my office.

Sorry for the confusion. Thanks.

Chris

Hi Chris:

I can talk at 3:15 pm today instead. I will have to make a hard-stop at 4:00 pm though for another meeting obligation. Is there a conference line that you can provide for all of the participants?

Thanks,
Greg

Hey Greg:

Thanks for getting back to me.

The only meeting I have today that I can't move is from 2-3 (with folks who are traveling in from out of state). I can clear my schedule anytime after 3:00 for a call with you and will try to make sure other appropriate EPA team members (who can answer technical Qs better than I can) are available too. Do you have any flexibility?

Thanks for your consideration.
